THE MURDER AT ORANGE.

PHŒBE PAULLIN'S STRUGGLE FOR LIFE,

INDICATIONS OF A FIERCE ASSAULT-NO CLEW TO THE MURDERER-AN AUTOPSY.

The spot where the body of the murdered girl, Phaebe Paullin, was found on Sunday, in West Orangy, A. J., is about a quarter of a mile beyond Eagle Rock, about sixty feet from the Centreville road. John Wachter keeps a beer-shop about a quarter of a mile beyond, and the girl's family live in two-story frame farmhonse a mile further on. Between the Paullin and Wachter places is the house of a family named Anderson, with whom Phaebe was acquainted. It was the girl's custom to go to Orange either in a wagon or on foot to make purchases. The road from the Paullin house to Orange has frequent turns and is not much travelled. On Saturday morning the girl made purchases at a drug store at Day and Main sts., She also bought some dry goods and stopped at the post-office and received a letter directed to her. She was seen by Constable William Murray at half past 5 o'clock, and he spoke to her, and she was seen again in Washington-st., going toward her home. A main who works in a quarry at Tory Corners, about hiff a mile east of Eagle Rock, say that he saw her after 6 o'clock walking up the mountain road.

John Wachter, the German liquor dealer, drove with his four children to St. John's Church, in Orange, on Sunday morning. Returning, lew wish sing ong the Centreville road when one of his sons said he saw a bundle of clothes in a click was the mutilated body of a young woma. She was lying on her face, her clothings was disarranged and her hat was on her head. Mear her lay a small valise, a brown paper package to the place indicated, when he discovered that the chief was the mutilated body of a young woma. She was lying on her face, her clothings was disarranged and her hat was on her head. Mear her lay a small valise, a brown paper package with the place indicated, when he discovered that which had severed the jugular vein and the carotid artery. The wounds were ragacles in the carotid artery. The wounds were ragacles as if inflicted with a blunt instrument. The dark may be a dealer the part of the place where the body a drug store? She went to Orange and got the family mail, consisting of a weekly paper and the expected letter, and these were found in the satchel which she carried.

Dr. Charles W. Hazen, one of the Coroners of Newark, arrived at the house shortly after 5 o'clock and was soon followed by Dr. P. Hewlett, Country Physician, and Drs. Richard Dieffenbach and Robert F. Gillin, all of Newark. A jury mad been empandelled at Orange. The body was in an adjoining room covered with a white sheet, which the foreman raised. The blood had settled in her face so that it looked as dark as that of an Italian or Spanish peasant girl, but she had been good looking. She had a fine forehead, well-shaped eyebrows, a handsome nose, curved lips and a rounded chim. After viewing the body the inquest was adjourned to Friday.

The doctors then made an autopsy with the following result: They found three wounds in the neek. The first was a large wound on the right side under the angle of the lower jaw; this was superficial and did not lacerate any artery. The second was on the left side, an L-shaped wound about three inches in length; this was an incised wound penetrating the trachen and cutting the carotid artery. The third was on the left side, a small punctured wound, which indicated that the weapon used was small, probably a pen-knife. There were unmistakable tokens of brutal assault.

The funeral will take place on Wednesday at 1 o'clock, and the body will be laid in the little churchyard of Pleasant Valley, between Orange Monntain and Second Mountain.

The County Physician, in looking over the ground and the vicinity of the place where the marder occurred, found the closely-defined tracks of a horse and wagon that bad been driven from the direction of Orange. The wagon evidently had been turned off the road and halted behind three cedar trees. The tracks show that the horse was led out from behind the trees by a man walking backward and that it was turned and driven from the direction of Orange. The wagon evidently had been turned of

It is the purpose of the wealthy residents of Llewllyn Park to spare no exertion or expense in hunting down the murderer of Phoebe Paullin. The supposition that the murderer is a trainp has aroused a strong feeling against this fraternity throughout Essex county, and it is probable that vigorous measures will be taken to get rid of the post.

Surface Indications

What a miner would very properly term "surface indications" of what is beneath, are the Pimples, Sties, Sore Eyes, Boils, and Cutaneous Eruptions with which people are annoyed in spring and early summer. The effete matter accumulated during the winter months, now makes its presence felt, through Nature's endeavors to expel it from the system. While it remains, it is a poison that festers in the blood and may develop into Scrofula. This condition causes derangement of the digestive and assimilatory organs, with a feeling of enervation, languor, and weariness—often lightly spoken of as "only spring fever." These are evidences that Nature is not able, unabled, to throw off the corrupt atoms which weaken the vital forces. To regain health, Nature must be aided by a thorough blood-purifying medical dded by a thorough blood-purifying medleine; and nothing else is so effective as

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

which is sufficiently powerful to expel from the system even the taint of Hered-ltary Scrofula.

The medical profession indorse Ayen's Sarsaparilla, and many attestations of the cures effected by it come from all parts of the world. It is, in the language of the Hon. Francis Jewett, ex-State Senator of Massachusetts and ex-Mayor of Lowell, "the only preparation that does real, lasting good."

THE LADIES' FRIEND! So Happy and So Good.

"I am so sad and down-hearted at times, and feel that I have not a friend in the world." Such is the expression of thousands of ladies who are discouraged and feel all "out of sorts," which unke them and their families very unbappy. All of these bad, unhappy troubles can be easily driven away and happiness, cheorisiness and love take their place. A few doses of BAOWAY'S REGULATING PILLS will make you feel so happy and so good, if you will only try them, and you will never regret it, but bless kadway and his pills as long as you live.
